

Bring it back home: How does it relate?
Identify the timeless truth(s) in this passage that relates to both the original readers and us. (If studying an Old Testament passage, filter theological principles through the New Testament.)

Apply it in your home: What do I do?
Identify parallel situations between the biblical context and ours. Make specific application of the timeless truth to our life today by asking five questions:

Who should I be?

How should I think?

What should I do?

Where should I go?

Who will I teach?
