Isaiah 11:1-10

The Hope of the People (11:1)

- This hope _____ human intuition.
- This hope _____ every false hope.
- This hope _____ to a King and kingdom.

*“I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.”
(Revelation 22:16)*

The Heart of the King (11:2-5)

- This King is _____ with the Spirit.

*And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man.
(Luke 2:52)*

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. (Luke 2:46-47)

- This King _____ the heart and _____ for the weak.

“Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.” (John 7:24)

“Many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he was doing. But Jesus on his part did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man.” (John 2:23b-24)

*“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.”
(Matthew 11:28)*

- This King _____ righteousness.

“But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things will be added to you.” (Matthew 6:33)

- Jesus: The True and Better Prophet, Priest, and King
- A word about Advent prophecies: The Kingdom has come in part and will come in fullness.

The Hallmarks of the Kingdom (11:6-10)

- This Kingdom _____ the end of evil and the establishment of everlasting peace.

“And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming.” (2 Thessalonians 2:8)
