

What Kind of Love Is This? John 3:16

"Babes in Christ and men in Christ here feed upon one common food. Come, ye aged saints, be children again; and you that have long known your Lord, take up your first spelling-book, and go over your ABC's again, by learning that God so loved the world, that he gave his Son to die, that man might live through him. I do not call you to an elementary lesson because you have forgotten your letters, but because it is a good thing to refresh the memory, and a blessed thing to feel young again." (Spurgeon)

A Love that Is Surprisingly Provided

- God's love is surprising because He doesn't need to love us.
 - In Himself, God has no need to love us.
 - The Father is perfectly satisfied in the Son. (John 3:35; 5:20)
 - The Son is completely devoted to the Father. (John 14:30-31)
 - Yet, in His goodness, God does love us.
- God's love is surprising because we don't deserve His love.
 - The world is unloving in its rebellion against God.
 - Yet, God is resolute in His love for the world.

A Love that Is Surpassingly Great

- God's love is surpassing because He gives His only Son.
- God's love is surpassing because he gives His only Son as our substitute.

"Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:4-6)

A Love that Is Supremely Important

- For the unbelieving, there is an urgency to trust God's Son.
- For the believing...
 - There is a reminder of God's unlimited provision for us.
 - There is a reminder of God's unwavering affection for us.

What Kind of Love Is This?

John 3:16

"Babes in Christ and men in Christ here feed upon one common food. Come, ye aged saints, be children again; and you that have long known your Lord, take up your first spelling-book, and go over your ABC's again, by learning that God so loved the world, that he gave his Son to die, that man might live through him. I do not call you to an elementary lesson because you have forgotten your letters, but because it is a good thing to refresh the memory, and a blessed thing to feel young again." (Spurgeon)

A Love that Is Surprisingly Provided

- God's love is surprising because He doesn't _____ to love us.
 - In _____, God has no need to love us.
 - The Father is perfectly _____ in the Son. (John 3:35; 5:20)
 - The Son is completely _____ to the Father. (John 14:30-31)
 - Yet, in His _____, God does love us.
- God's love is surprising because we don't _____ His love.
 - The world is _____ in its rebellion against God.
 - Yet, God is _____ in His love for the world.

A Love that Is Surpassingly Great

- God's love is surpassing because He gives His only _____.
- God's love is surpassing because he gives His only Son as our _____.

"Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:4-6)

A Love that Is Supremely Important

- For the unbelieving, there is an urgency to _____ God's Son.
- For the believing...
 - There is a reminder of God's unlimited _____ for us.
 - There is a reminder of God's unwavering _____ for us.