UNDESERVING SINNERS UNITED AND SUSTAINED BY UNFATHOMABLE MERCY

1 Timothy 1:3-20

TWO REMINDERS FROM LAST WEEK ...

We want our worship to be God-centered.

- Essential components of our worship...
Adoration, Confession, Instruction, Communion, Intercession, Commission
- Central characteristics of our worship...
Divine Revelation, Community Participation, Reverent Affection, Dedicated, Attention

We want our community to be gospel-formed.

TWO REALITIES FOR THIS WEEK...

What unites us in the church is not style of worship or songs in worship; what unites us in the church is salvation through the gospel.

What sustains us as the church is not a certain pastor or a certain program ;
what sustains us as the church is perseverance in the gospel.

- We guard the gospel.
 - How NOT to use God's law...
 - We must not add to the law's demands.
 - We must not think that the law saves.
 - This produces...
 - Arrogance and ignorance among those who teach.
 - Confusion and deception among those who hear.
 - How to use God's law...
 - To show God's restraint of sin.
 - To show God's condemnation of the sinner.
 - To show God's will for the saved.
 - This produces...
 - Responsibility among those who teach.
 - Love among those who hear.
- We celebrate the gospel.
 - The gospel of God is...
 - Incarnational, yet undeniable.
 - Universal, yet personal.
 - The grace of God is...
 - Unconditional.
 - Purposeful.
 - It demonstrates God's patience.
 - It leads to God's praise.
 - The glory of God is...
 - Royal and eternal.
 - Invisible and incomparable.
- We fight for the gospel.
 - In our lives.
 - In the church.
