

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

QUESTION 1

Why do you think so many Christians find it difficult to share their faith? What keeps you from sharing your faith?

QUESTION 2

How would you respond to someone who said, “I was laughed at for sharing my faith yesterday, so I probably should have waited until God prompted me to speak.”

QUESTION 3

How should God’s power affect our willingness to speak? List two or three verses related to God’s power that will give you courage to share the gospel and face opposition if necessary.

QUESTION 4

Christ commanded us to make disciples of all nations, yet there are billions who either do not have access to the gospel. There are also many places around the world where it is dangerous to confess Christ. So how can followers of Jesus have hope in the mission He has given us? What can we do to grow in our faith and maintain our hope?

QUESTION 5

List some people in your circle of influence—family members, neighbors, co-workers, etc.—who need to hear the gospel. Pray and make specific plans to attempt to speak with these people about the good news of Jesus Christ.

For more gospel-centered resources from David Platt, visit www.radical.net.