

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

QUESTION 1

Respond to the following statement: “Churches should never address race or politics because these issues tend to divide us.”

QUESTION 2

If Christians rarely gather with those of a different race or political opinion, what does that say about where we find our unity?

QUESTION 3

How do divisions within the church harm the church’s mission?

QUESTION 4

How does the gospel overcome divisions that seem insurmountable to the world?

QUESTION 5

What are some ways we can guard against sinful divisions and pursue unity in the church?